decade	small pieces
ubiquitous	a period of 10 years intricately	the speed at which light travels, 186,282 miles per second light speed	found everywhere bits	created or present before another event starts preexisting	in very small, precise details strung together	changed color (v)	normal or common tease out	the way an idea or sound is expressed on a given occasion standard (adj)	connected rendering	to separate one thing from a complicated mix of many things altered	influence or change the appearance of something, usually in a subtle way controversial	having very strong feelings or opinions hard-core	causing a lot of disagreement among people upset (v)	larger than normal distress (n)	state of feeling unhappy or upset quiver (n)	cause someone to feel sad, worried, or angry about something layer	short, quick shaking movements stretch (n)	control or influence govern	an amount or quantity of something (e.g. dust) that exists over or on top of a surface swollen (past participle of swell)	a large section

LIVEWORKSHEETS