

ADJECTIVES TO DESCRIBE PLACES

Write the correct word

Full of people, restaurants, shops from different countries.

A city that spreads far and wide.

Full of tourists and things for tourists to buy and do.

Something critical or important is missing from the city.

Very lively, very active or very well situated.

A city is perhaps old, in poor conditions, where no investments have been made.

A city with bad air quality, with the smog that is dangerous to health.

A city that is thriving, with lots of new buildings, lots of investment.

A city that is very clean.

Where few or no people now live.

A city that is quite tight and doesn't spread out so much.

Related to middle ages.

Full of energy and life.

Something absolutely beautiful.