

Work Ethic Scenarios

While taking out the trash from the dishroom, Antonio notices there are cardboard boxes out back that need to be broken down. Antonio breaks them down and puts them in the recycle dumpster. Did Antonio take initiative?

While assisting in the laundry room, Valen's mentor needs to take a short break, but Valen keeps on working. Is Valen reliable?

Michael is working in Memory Care and he and Mia are rolling silverware. Mia gets bored of rolling the silverware, so she gets up and leaves Michael to finish the job by himself. Is Mia showing good teamwork?

Nadia is helping Vickie with exercise. Nadia greets each resident, encourages them while exercising and offers them water after finishing their exercises. Is she demonstrating professionalism in the workplace?

Elijah enjoys routine tasks and is able to work independently. His mentor is out sick, so he has to work with someone else. He gets upset and refuses to complete the tasks. Is Elijah being adaptable?

While in the dishroom, Antonio drops a bus tub full of glasses breaking a few. When Chef Chris asks who broke the glasses, Antonio says it wasn't him. Is Antonio being accountable for his mistake?

Valen is cleaning resident's rooms with Keela. Keela asks Valen to dust the dresser and Valen says she doesn't feel like it because she doesn't like to dust. Is Valen demonstrating a positive attitude?

One of the Grand Villa employees has not missed any work days in her 3 years of employment. Does she have good attendance?

Michael is learning to fold napkins in Memory Care. Yunet tells him that he is folding them wrong and shows him the correct way. Michael gets mad and says folding the napkins is stupid. Did Michael handle the constructive criticism well?

While working in housekeeping, Elijah learned to vacuum, sanitize the handrails, mop and clean windows. Did Elijah learn some new skills?

Nadia is on a shopping trip to Target with the activities staff and some residents. She is supposed to be helping a resident locate the items on their list, but instead goes looking for some video games that she likes. Is Nadia focused on what she is supposed to be doing?

During the workday the interns each get a 15 minute break. Antonio sets a timer on his phone so he is never late returning back to his job. Is Antonio punctual?

At 8:30 am, Elijah, Michael, Valen, and Nadia gather their daily task lists and go meet their mentor because they are very excited about their jobs. Are they self-motivated?

The employees of Grand Villa are always happy when we are at work. They realize how helpful the Project SEARCH interns are. Does Project SEARCH have a good or bad reputation?