Question: How did the woman in the room die?

Degree	Example sentence	Comment
FACT	She had a pink raincoat.	The speaker is 100% sure. This is a fact.
Almost 100% Sure	She must have come from Cardiff. She must have been at a hotel.	The speaker is making a logical conclusion and is almost sure (but not completely sure) that the woman came from Cardiff.
Possibility	She may have died from poisoning. She might have choked. She could have been strangled.	The speaker is simply mentioning a possibility here. All three examples in the first column are ways of saying "It's possible that died from different causes.

Degree	Example sentence	Comment
FACT	She was a reporter.	The speaker is she is in media.
Impossible	She couldn't have been shot.	The speaker believes that it was impossible that someone killed her by shooting her.
Almost 100% Sure	She must not have been from the area.	The speaker is making a logical conclusion. The speaker is 95% sure the woman was not from London.
Possibility	She may not have had one lover. She might not have killed herself.	The speaker is simply mentioning a possibility here.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

used poison.	might have	The killer.

The	might have	come	woman	from Cardiff

It	must have	raining	been	outside.

There	been	strong	must have	winds	outside.

She	have	died	couldn't	from	a gunshot.

She	been	have	couldn't	from	London.

She	must not	in a happy	have been	marriage.

Create five questions from the statements above.

Follow this pattern.

Modal	Subject	Have	Past participle	Part. phrase
Could	The woman	Have	Been	From London?

LIVEWORKSHEETS