

Money and shopping

5A

LANGUAGE

GRAMMAR: Zero and first conditional; future time clauses

- 1 Complete the sentences with the verbs in the box.

don't work work won't work works will pay pay pays won't pay

- I'll cut the grass every week if you _____ me.
- We get seven dollars for each kilo of fruit we pick. If you _____ hard, you can earn a lot.
- Rafi can have the watch as soon as she _____ me for it.
- If Alex doesn't offer us enough cash, we _____ for him.
- Anna won't pass her exams unless she _____ harder.
- If Marco isn't prepared to do as much as his colleagues, we _____ him.
- We have no other choice. If we _____, we don't eat – it's that simple!
- If they finish the job by the end of the day, I _____ them extra.

- 2 Use the prompts to complete zero or first conditionals or future time clauses. Include commas where necessary.

- I _____ me to. (not call you/again today/unless/want)
- If you _____ you one. (not have/raincoat/I/lend)
- Ed's so shy. If you _____ bright red. (try/speak to him/usually/go)
- Your hands _____ gloves. (get cold/if/not wear)
- You've broken Rick's guitar! He _____!
(be/really angry/when/find out)
- Mom _____ my room. (not let/me/go out/until/clean)

VOCABULARY: Money

- 3 Match the underlined words with the words in the box.

mortgage bill cash loan taxes coin broke wealthy

- I do some jobs for my neighbor, and he pays me in paper and metal money.
- She must be rich – she has three houses.
- You have to put a piece of metal money into the machine to make it work.
- I want to buy a new car, so I'm going to ask the bank for a sum of money I have to pay back.
- He couldn't go to the restaurant because he was completely without any money.
- Do you think that rich people should pay more money that goes to the government?
- Half of their wages go to paying the money they owe the bank for their house.
- Inside the card was a $50 piece of paper money.

- 4 Complete the second sentence to mean the same as the first.

- Eva let Kris have $15 until Friday.
Eva _____ Kris $15 until Friday.
- Petra got $30 from the ATM.
Petra _____ out $30 from the ATM.
- Rochelle bought us each a pizza.
Rochelle _____ for our pizzas.
- Peter lent Ollie the train fare.
Ollie _____ the train fare from Peter.
- Clara gave Wes the money she owed him.
Clara _____ Wes back.
- Janie bought the jacket with her credit card.
Janie _____ for the jacket by credit card.
- Yolanda deposited the money into her savings account.
Yolanda _____ the money into her savings account.

PRONUNCIATION: Intonation

- 5  5.1 Listen and repeat the sentences. Pay attention to the falling intonation.

- If John and I go out, it's usually to the theater.
- We'll be late if you don't hurry.
- I won't go to the show unless Kate wants to.
- If it's too warm, I'll open the window.
- Molly gets angry if we tease her.
- I'll talk to Dan if I see him.