Don't miss the event of the year!

Now in its seventh season this year, the Rogers Estate Festival starts a day earlier: on Thursday, which means visitors have a whole extra day to enjoy it. This showcase of art and music takes place in a (1) _____ like no other, with the castle ruins in the background. This year's line-up includes an array of talented actors alongside a very (2) _____ selection of both local and international musicians and visual artists.

Visitors can take (3) _____ an impressive range of exhibits and experience both the permanent and (4) _____ collections through their five senses. In addition to large-audience sessions, there will be more intimate moments, including poetry recitals, (5) _____ by soloists plus painters and sculptors at work. Last but not least, on Friday, we are in for a special (6) _____. Belinda Wilde, our guest of honour this year, is (7) _____ her debut at the festival, giving us a preview of a new (8) _____ of her famous symphony. If you still haven't bought your pass to the festival, what are you waiting for?
