Listening Activity

1. Listen to the news story about the message in the bottle. Put the three parts of the story in the order you hear them. (1-2-3)

a. the history of messages in a bottle

b.how someone found this message in a bottle

c.why someone sent this message in a bottle

2. Listen to the news story again. Choose the correct option (a-c) to answer each question.

How did the captain feel when he saw a message inside the bottle?
a. surprised
b. worried
c. curious

Why had someone written the message?
a. as a love letter
b. because they were lost at sea
c. as part of a scientific experiment

Why is this a world record?
a. It's the longest message in a bottle ever found in the ocean.
b. It's the oldest message in a bottle ever found in the ocean.
c. It's the oldest message in a bottle ever written.

Why did the ancient Greeks put bottles in the ocean over two thousand years ago?
a. to find out if the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean were connected
b. to send messages to ships in the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean
c. to help sailors who were lost in the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean

In 1915, why did the sailor send a message in a bottle to his wife?
a. to say he was coming home
b. to say that he loved her
c. to say where he was

LIVEWORKSHEETS