

Questions 21-24

What effect does art therapy have on the following age groups?

Choose FOUR answers from the box and write the correct letter, A-E, next to Questions 21-24.

Effects of Art Therapy

- A assists in motor skill development
- B enhances recall ability
- C enables better expression of feelings
- D helps people recover from traumatic events
- E slows the mental effects of aging

Age Groups

- 21 Preschool children
- 22 Adolescents
- 23 Adults
- 24 Senior citizens

Questions 25-30

Choose the correct letter, A, B, or C.

- 25 Who will the students conduct interviews with as part of their research?
- A patients of art therapists
 - B psychology experts
 - C website journalists
- 26 What is Raymond worried about?
- A There are not many studies that focus on multiple age ranges.
 - B There is little material written on the selected topic.
 - C There may be insufficient time to write about all the collected data.
- 27 According to the professor, the students could study preschool children and senior citizens because
- A there is not enough material on people of other ages.
 - B similar therapies have been used for both groups.
 - C there is a word limit for the project.
- 28 How do senior citizens tend to react when asked to express themselves through art?
- A They draw things that they see around them.
 - B They are hesitant and don't know what to draw.
 - C They take to it very quickly.
- 29 Group sessions for both seniors and preschoolers resulted in
- A more physical activity.
 - B less social interaction.
 - C improved mental functions.
- 30 How does art therapy that includes music help patients?
- A It allows them to express personal feelings.
 - B It allows them to relax.
 - C It provides them with a sense of unity.