Class Goal: Students will speak, understand, read, and write English well enough to learn how to make the dreams they have for their adult lives come true.

I can speak to and understand my friends.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

I can speak to and understand business people in the community.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

I can speak to and understand my teachers.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

I can read, understand, and write a sales contract for a car or house.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

I can read, understand, and write a statement for the police or a lawyer.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

I can read, understand, and write permission for medical treatment.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

I can read, understand, and write a job resume.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

Class Expectation: Students will practice being mature, caring members of society.

I help out with chores in my family without being asked.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

When I'm bored in class, I talk or play even if it stops others from learning.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

Since being a student is my job, I work hard at it.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

When someone makes a mistake, I laugh or make jokes that put him/her down.

Not at all | Not much | Maybe some | Most of the time | Always

LIVEWORKSHEETS