

CLASSIFY OBSERVATIONS. Check quantitative OR qualitative for each observation.

	Statement	Qualitative	Quantitative
1	Most horses measure about nine feet long.
2	The sky is blue.
3	There were 14 ducks in the flock.
4	Rocky the squirrel weighed about 43 grams.
5	Mrs. Donohue loves horses and dogs.
6	There are 20 students in 5C.
7	There are girls and boys in 5C and 5D
8	Rocky didn't have any fur.
9	It has been more than 100 degrees outside lately.
10	Oakbrook Elementary has nearly 600 students this year.

Label each observation as quantitative or qualitative.

11. _____ There are two horses here.
 12. _____ The horses in the picture are pretty.

OBSERVATIONS OR INFERENCES? Read the statements below each picture. Write an O if the statement is an observation. Write an I if the statement is an inference. (You should have a letter by EVERY statement.

- ___ I think the woman is a vet.
 ___ The girl is holding a cat.
 ___ The cat is very sick
 ___ The woman likes cats.

- ___ The children are wearing backpacks.
 ___ They're at camp.
 ___ I see 3 hats.

- ___ I think these kids are brother and sister.
 ___ They're playing chess.
 ___ The girl's winning because she's smiling.