

The Smartphone Age

You are going to hear part of a radio programme about raising children in the so-called smartphone age. As you listen, complete with a maximum of three words.

1. The smartphone is described as a(n) for British children.
2. According to the speaker, smartphones have changed completely.
3. Smartphones can have such a negative impact on mental health as can have on physical health.
4. The speaker wonders if critics of smartphones are dinosaurs who suffer from
5. James Williams is a at Google.
6. Currently, James Williams is doing his PhD on
7. He claims that there are a lot of very intelligent behind the screens that we use.
8. This is a new form of power that is stronger than the power of

(adapted from <https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds/play/b0bbnz03>)