

Writing: Getting Started

Read Liam's email. Look at the letters in colour. Why is each letter a capital letter?
Use the information in The Capital Letters box to help you.

In English, we use capital letters for:

1. the first word of the sentence
2. names of people
3. days of the week, months of the year and festivals
4. names of places, cities, countries, nationalities and languages
5. the pronoun I
6. titles of songs, films and books

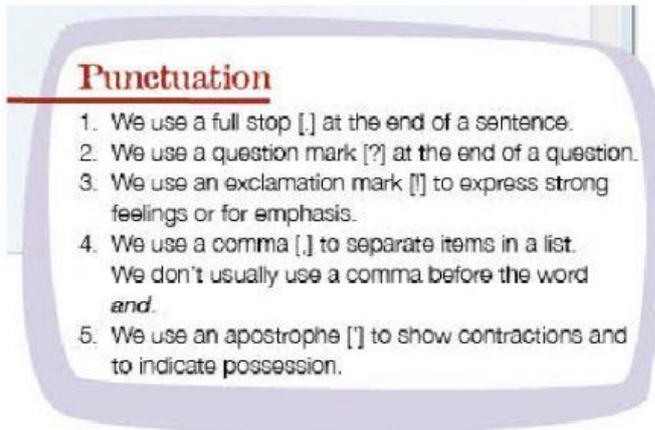

London because it is the name of a place.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.

Rewrite the sentences below adding the missing capital letters:

1. We start school in september.
2. we like strawberries.
3. His name is john.

4. We have class on Mondays and Wednesdays.
5. My friend is from Italy.
6. Have you read Harry Potter?

Rewrite the following sentences adding the correct punctuation:

1. My name is Laura
2. My friend mother is a teacher.
3. I need lemons oranges apples and a lettuce
4. Im so surprised
5. Are you happy

Write an email to your teacher introducing yourself: (maximum 6 lines)