ILLNESSES

Last Monday I skipped school because I was sick. I had a stomach bug. I think it was because the seafood I had on Saturday night. I went to dinner with my family at a seafood restaurant. My mom and I ordered the spicy crabs while my dad and brother ate the fish. I felt fine on Sunday morning but then I felt weak on Sunday afternoon.

I started having fever and stomachache. In the evening, I threw up. My mom had headaches in the morning but only for a little while and she was well again. My dad gave me some warm drink and told me to rest. On Monday morning I felt better but I still felt weak so my mom and dad asked me to rest more and told me that I could skip school. I promised myself not to order spicy crabs again.
