

Exercise 1

Choose the correct words.

How I became an actor

I had been studying journalism in New York for about a year when I decided to go to Los Angeles and become an actor. By the time I got my first professional role, I had been living for over a year before I had been doing of auditions and had been managing as a teaching assistant, a taxi driver and a waiter in an Italian restaurant. I had been leaving in LA for over a year before I had been finding my parents what I had been working to secure a role in a major TV series, which meant that I had a steady income. But they weren't happy that I had been finding college before I had been working my degree. They had been finding that I would become a famous reporter or TV journalist. However, they were surprised to learn how hard I had been finding for the past year to get roles, and they were happy that I had been finding a career that I enjoyed.

- 1 had been attending
had attended
- 2 had been working
had worked
- 3 had been living
was living
- 4 had told
told
- 5 had been doing
I have done
- 6 had managed
had been managing
- 7 had been leaving
had left
- 8 would receive
had received
- 9 hoped
had been hoping
- 10 worked
had been working
- 11 had been finding
had found

Exercise 1

In each set of choices, only one answer is correct. Click on the correct answer.

What do you think of the Government's new university education policy?

- When universities start / will start charging higher fees, it's bound to be / it bounds to be / it's bounding to be difficult for students.
- They haven't thought it through carefully enough – it's bound to be / be / being a failure.
- Some colleges are on the verge of closing / close down already – this will unlikely / is unlikely to help.
- It's sure to improving / sure to improve the quality of higher education, in my opinion.
- It may / may be start working once the universities find / will find alternative funding.
- Although the new policy is not due to / to due come into effect until next year, I don't hope / predict a fall in student numbers this year.

Exercise 1

Choose the correct words.

Do you think it is likely that we will stop using fossil fuels in the future?

- I think it's doubtful. As long as there is still enough petrol, continues everyone Select an option to drive cars.
- We'll need to find alternatives to oil and gas. Select an option we whether unless want to or not, because they are not going to last much longer.
- People Select an option considering alternatives will start won't start unless provided there is some kind of emergency.
- Select an option* we run out of oil, I think scientists Whether Even if will develop develop some other kind of fuel for cars that is just as harmful for the environment.
- The world Select an option much cleaner Select an option we is will be it unless ever stop using fossil fuels, but I think it's unlikely to happen in my lifetime.
- I think most people will use alternative energy Select an option it is provided in case cheap enough.

Exercise 2

Choose the correct words.

A mysterious house

I climbed upstairs to my bedroom, having been told Select an option was on the second floor of the vast building. There were several other rooms on this floor, but all of Select an option were locked except for mine. The house contained a large collection of portraits. Most of Select an option dated from the eighteenth century, although a few smaller Select an option seemed to be more recent. The portraits lined the walls of the staircase and the hallway. I felt their eyes watching me. It seemed to me that Select an option of the women looked at me sorrowfully, while Select an option of the men gazed disapprovingly into the distance. I opened the door to my bedroom. I found that Select an option had dark green wallpaper and was furnished with dark wooden furniture, and Select an option gave Select an option a mysterious and oppressive feeling. There was a large bed in the centre of the room. Next to it was a small table, and a larger Select an option was in front of the window. I sat down and started to write in my journal.

- 1 it
one
ones
them
this
those
- 2 It
one
ones
them
this
those
- 3 It
one
ones
them
this
those
- 4 it
one
ones
them
this
those
- 5 it
one
ones
them
this
those
- 6 it
one
ones
them
this
those
- 7 it
one
ones
them
this
those
- 8 it
one
ones
them
this
those
- 9 It
one
ones
them
this
those