

Questions 176-180 refer to the following e-mail and Web page.

To:	Hyo-Jung Cho
From:	Julian Katz
Date:	14 June
Subject:	Information

Dear Ms. Cho:

Since you were away last week, you might not yet know all the details of the situation with the Web site. Shannon Gehring, our Web designer, was in the middle of revising the site when a severe thunderstorm hit our area. Our servers were struck by lightning and sustained some damage. While they were being repaired, the museum's Web site was down for two days.

I know you are planning to send an e-mail to members today, asking them to help us meet a fund-raising goal by 30 June, the end of our fiscal year. Our site is back online now, and includes a new comment page that can be used for this fund-raising event. Please let me know if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Julian Katz
IT Coordinator

14 June

I am such a big fan of the Knight Museum! I have been taking advantage of some of the museum's wonderful programs. The recent series of watercolor painting classes with local artist Leroy Davis was terrific. This experience with watercolors will help me appreciate the museum's current exhibition of Japanese watercolor paintings even more; I'm looking forward to taking a tour of the exhibition next week.

I already contribute as a museum member, but I just made an additional donation online today after I received a fund-raising e-mail from the museum's director. It was easy to access the Web site, although I had trouble last week. I hope others will support the museum by contributing before the 30 June deadline. The Knight Museum's programming is worth it.

—Brenda Sanz

To: Andrea Williams <a.williams@cardiocentre.co.uk>
From: Samuel Penfold <s.penfold@cardiocentre.co.uk>
Date: 2 August
Subject: Re: Cardiology conference

Dear Dr. Williams,

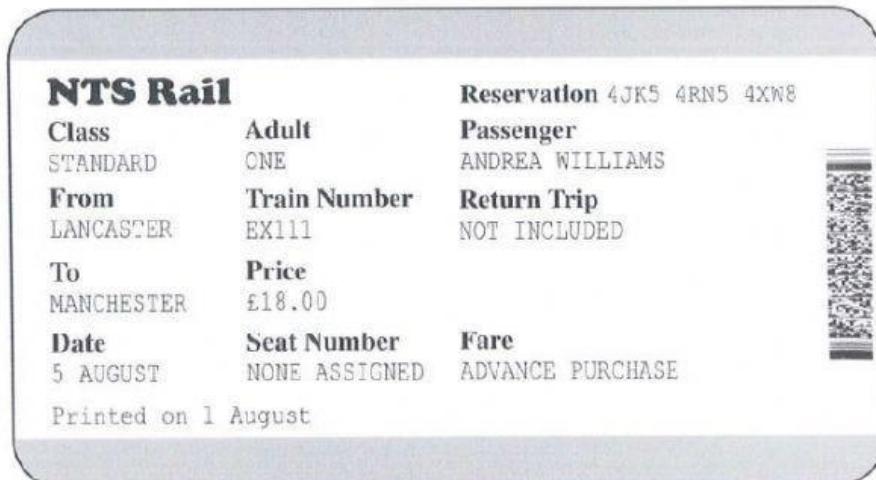

Yes, I will be going to the cardiology conference, and I am looking forward to it. Unfortunately, I will not be able to travel there with you because I am seeing patients until 3 P.M. on 5 August. I will have to miss the first day's sessions, but I will be on-site that evening and for the next two days.

Maybe we can have dinner together one evening? Evrim Turgut was telling me about your research together into diagnostic imaging technologies, and I would love the chance to discuss it with you.

Let me know when you will be free.

All best,

Samuel Penfold, MD

Community Project to Showcase Pottersville Artists

By Laurence du Bois

POTTERSVILLE (May 21)—At the opening of this year's Small Business Fair in Pottersville Central Park yesterday, the Pottersville Chamber of Commerce announced Images of Success, a community initiative that seeks to promote Pottersville businesses by way of public art. Through the project, local artists will work with area business owners to create original murals on storefronts throughout the city.

To apply, business owners must submit a description of their business's role in the community and document that their business has been in its current location for at least two years. Artists interested in participating must complete an application in which they describe their connection to Pottersville and submit samples of their own original artwork.

Both business owners and artists should submit applications to Timothy Freel at tfreel@pottersvillecoc.gov by June 15. The city will reimburse artists for approved supplies up to a limit of $150.

To:	Timothy Freel
From:	Haruka Goto
Date:	June 24
Subject:	Images of Success inquiry

Dear Mr. Freel,

It was a pleasure meeting with you earlier this week at Jam Café to talk about the design for the Images of Success mural project. I hadn't been to Jam Café since it reopened, and it was great to see the finished renovations. In fact, the owner of the café recently bought one of my paintings to display in the café.

As you suggested, I have adjusted the color scheme to include only the colors from Jam Café's interior. Please let me know as soon as possible whether you would like me to make additional changes.

Best,

Haruka Goto

Jacqueline Garza, better known as Jaq, was born and raised in Austin, Texas. As a child, Ms. Garza loved to dance and play sports. She particularly excelled at basketball and, following her high school graduation, she was offered a professional contract with the local Austin team. However, she chose to pursue a university degree in economics instead. After completing her degree, Ms. Garza admitted she was still happiest playing basketball, and finally joined the Austin team.

Ms. Garza is known for her skill and speed as well as her kindness and team spirit. Off the court, she founded an organization called Reading is a Breeze. This organization provides resources to libraries that receive limited funding for print and audio books, young-adult periodicals, and digital reading devices. It even provides glasses to children whose parents have difficulty purchasing them on their own.

To: Henri Delon <hdelon@bonvue.ca>
From: Anita Wyatt <awyatt@bonvue.ca>
Subject: Celebrity spokesperson
Date: 18 March

Dear Henri:

As promised, I researched a possible celebrity endorser to work with us on the expansion into the United States market. Jacqueline Garza is a professional basketball player from Austin, Texas, with an interesting background. Her nonprofit foundation, which focuses on children's literacy, has a natural connection to our products at Bonvue. You can learn more about her by visiting her Web site, www.jaqgarza.com. If you approve of the idea, I will try to connect with her agent to negotiate her compensation.

I also spoke with Mr. Roy this morning. He says that because the publicity campaign has been temporarily delayed, Marketing does not need us to have the spokesperson lined up until June.

Best,

Anita
