

Expressing common points and differences

I Choose the right answer.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. I don't like mustard . | So do I. / Neither do I / Neither am I. |
| 2. I'm excited about the party. | So am I. / So do I. / Neither am I. |
| 3. I cannot understand English. | So can I. / I can't neither. / Whereas I can. |
| 4. I'm not Scottish. | So am I. / Neither am I. / I am either. |
| 5. They don't like tea. | Neither do I. / So do I. / Whereas I don't. |
| 6. My best friend went to New York last year. | So went I. / Neither did I. / So did I. |
| 7. My brother has got a cat. | So do I. / So got I. / So have I. |
| 8. I have got a laptop computer. | So does my sister. / So has my sister. / So got my sister. |
| 9. She enjoys reading a lot. | Whereas her sister doesn't. / Whereas her sister does. |
| 10. He has never won any competition | So has she. / She hasn't neither. / She hasn't either. |

II How would you react to these statements ? Express either common points or differences.

1. Sam walks to school every day.
2. Bill hasn't understood the joke.
3. My father always drives very carefully.
4. Stephanie hasn't finished the exercise.
5. I can't hear what the teacher is saying.
6. Julie would love to stop and have a cup of coffee.
7. He will be delighted when he gets his driving license.
8. Caroline wouldn't like to fail her final exams.
9. I love watching American series.
10. Lee hasn't revised all his English vocabulary yet.

III Look at the pictures and complete the sentences.

Jim loves dancing. his grandson.	Ben should go to bed... his girlfriend	Kelly is optimist. her twin sister	Brian went hiking yesterday. Vicky.	Tim would like an ice cream. Tom !	Bill won't make it to the airport on time.

