

I. Identify whether the example of matter is solid, liquid or gas. Write S for solid, L for liquid and G for gas.

☐ 1. orange juice☐ 2. boat☐ 3. paper☐ 4. bottle☐ 5. whiteboard☐ 6. cellphone☐ 7. coconut milk☐ 8. ballpen☐ 9. buko juice☐ 10. carbon dioxide

II. Write T inside the circle if the sentence is true and if it is false, write F.

☐ 1. Gases cannot be weighed.☐ 2. All liquids are safe to drink.☐ 3. Laptop is an example of liquid.☐ 4. Liquids have definite size and shape.☐ 5. Gases can be felt but cannot be seen.☐ 6. Liquids take up the shape of the container.☐ 7. Viscosity is the resistance of a liquid to flow.☐ 8. Solids made of strong materials do not wear out easily.☐ 9. Gases have no definite volume but have definite shape.☐ 10. Particles in solids are very close to each other, making them retain their shapes regardless of the container they are placed in.