

Healthcare specialists

Match the healthcare specialist to its correct description

Anaesthesiologists	Experts in hormones and metabolism
Cardiologists	Specialise in kidney disease and high blood pressure
Dermatologists	Eye specialists
Endocrinologists	Specialise in diseases of the blood
Gastroenterologists	Specialists in end of life care
Haematologists	Put patients to sleep for surgery or numb a part of the body
Immunologists	Treat problems with the skin
Nephrologists	Experts in the heart and blood vessels
Ophthalmologists	Treat foot and ankle conditions
Palliative care specialists	Specialists in conditions related to the digestive system
Pathologists	Use imaging test such as x-rays, ultrasound, and MRI to diagnose
Paediatricians	Treat allergies and other immune system diseases
Psychiatrists	Specialise in bladder and urinary tract conditions
Podiatrists	Specialise in children's health
Radiologists	Examine body tissue, blood, and other body fluids, often in a lab
Urologists	Specialise in mental and emotional illnesses