

Travelling

phrasal verbs

Fill in the gaps. Remember to conjugate the verbs in the correct tense.

Drop off Check in Check out Pick up Set out Take off Get in Get away Get on Look around Hurry up Go back See off Look forward

Summer break in the USA

The day I left for the USA, my family (1)_____ me _____. We had breakfast at the airport but we had to (2)_____ so that I wouldn't miss my flight. It was a teary goodbye, but I was (3)_____ to a new experience in the USA. After I (4)_____ the plane I made myself comfortable and sent a few last minute goodbye text messages. I thought of how much I wanted this holiday and that I just needed to (5)_____ from it all.

A short while later the pilot announced that all electronics were to be switched off, as we were preparing to (6)_____.

When our plane (7)_____ at JFK Airport in New York there was already a taxi waiting to (8)_____ me _____. The taxi (9)_____ me _____ at the Holiday Inn where I would meet up with my friends. After I (10)_____ to the hotel we all went to Time Square, where we (11)_____ for the rest of the day. The next day we got up in the early hours of the morning and did some sightseeing. That night we were exhausted and went to bed early. The next morning we (12)_____ after breakfast, rented a car and (13)_____ on a cross-country road trip. It would be another 3 months before I would (14)_____ home.

