

GERUNDS

WHEN YOU ADD ING

TO A VERB (đỘNG TỪ)

IT CAN ACT LIKE A

NOUN (DANH TỪ)

THIS IS CALLED A

GERUND

Position of gerunds:

David enjoys skipping.

Sophie likes playing tag.

Amelia doesn't like kicking the ball.

Kevin doesn't enjoy bouncing the ball.

Do you like dancing?

Does Cherry enjoy playing soccer?

after the verb

2

Write these sentences using the Gerunds.
Don't forget to take off the E and add ING.

a I drink milk tea. (ENJOY)

b I help my mom. (LIKE)

c I go to the park (ENJOY)

d Ivy speaks English. (LIKE)

e Tom plays tag. (ENJOY)

f Oliver bounces a ball. (DOESN'T LIKE) a I dance with my friends. (DON'T ENJOY)

h Do you clean you room? (LIKE)

i Does Elsa do homework? (ENJOY)
