- 1) Lawrence closed the door and walked towards Russel Square with his hands in his pockets. He (go) _____ to a concert in Camden Town so, he had to take the Piccadilly Line and get off in King's Cross St. Pancras, and change to the Northern line.

As soon as he went down the steps of Russel Square station, he (see) _____ a sign "No trains today."

He went up the steps again, thinking hard what other thing he could do. To begin with, he could take the bus, but he (be) _____ in London for just 5 days and he wasn't very familiar with the bus lines.

If he took a taxi, it (cost) _____ a fortune, and he wanted to save his money to buy a t-shirt after the concert. Lawrence felt lost. He decided (walk) _____ north, expecting (see) _____ a bus bound to Camden Town.

He had been walking for 20 minutes and he knew he was going to miss his concert if he (not-find) _____ a way to get there soon. Suddenly, a car (stop) _____ near him and the girl who (drive) _____ asked him: "Excuse me! Could you tell me how to get to Camden Town? I (try) _____ to get there for an hour now".

"I'll tell you if you give me a lift there."

2) Last night I _____ (want) to watch a film on TV, but my sister _____ (watch) a quiz show. I _____ (agree) to wait until the end of her show.
