

Auxiliary Verbs for Emphasis

Match the sentence halves. Write a letter in a box

- |   |                      |   |
|---|----------------------|---|
| 1. If I do leave my house,                               | <input type="text"/> | a) they felt really alone.  |
| 2. The interactions I do have                            | <input type="text"/> | b) it's to get a coffee or go to my coworking space.              |
| 3. What I have discovered with suicidal patients is that | <input type="text"/> | c) if you can pair with people in their despair, they get better. |
| 4. What I learned is                                     | <input type="text"/> | d) throughout my day just feel so transactional.                  |

Complete the sentences with an auxiliary verb (do/does/did) and the verbs from the box.

feel / love / realize / smell / work

- Oh, I  embarrassed at that moment.
- He/She  really hard!
- I  it was my fault.
- Yes, it  a bit strange.
- I  you, but I have to go.

Rewrite the sentences emphasizing the underlined phrases.

- I feel tired just thinking about going to the office.

- She looks really pretty tonight.

- We appreciated your gift a lot.

- He tried to help, but it was too late.

- I value the relationships I have with others.