Introduction

The <sup>1</sup>_____ of this report is to give suggestions to a group of elderly tourists <sup>2</sup>_____ how to make the most of their morning in Roxburgh.

Sightseeing

The group <sup>3</sup>_____ like to begin the morning with a visit to the sixteenth-century church, with its <sup>4</sup>_____ stained-glassed windows. Within easy walking distance of the church is the Roxburgh Folk Museum, containing numerous <sup>5</sup>_____ which show what life was like in the town in former centuries.

Shopping

For those who would like to go shopping, the farmers' market in the main square is an option worth <sup>6</sup>_____. A <sup>7</sup>_____ choice of fresh, organic produce is on sale, together with locally made cheeses, bread and wine. The square also <sup>8</sup>_____ a number of interesting pottery shops, some of which offer discounts to senior citizens.

Lunch

Conclusion

Although the group is only in Roxburgh for a short time, everyone is <sup>12</sup>_____ a warm welcome and a memorable morning.
