REVISION : Fill in the blanks of unseen passage with correct word-

One day, Mannu the milkman had fills / filled his pails with milk. His job was /were to milk the cows, and then bring the milk to the market to sell. Mannu loved to think about what to spend her money on. As he filled the pails with milk and went / goes to market, he again thought of all the things /thing he wanted to buy. As he walked along / across the road, he thought of buying a cake and a basket full of fresh mangoes. A little further down the road, he spot / spotted a chicken. He thought, "With the money I get from today, I'm going to buy / bought a chicken of my own. That chicken will lay eggs, then I will be able to sell milk and eggs and get more money!" He continued, "With more money, I will be able to buy a bike and make all the other milkmen jealous." Out of excitement, Mannu started skips / skipping, forgetting about the milk in his pails. Soon, the milk started spilling over the edges and he became fully wet. Mannu said to himself, "Oh no! I will never have enough money to buy / bought a chicken now." He went home with his empty pails. "Oh, my son! What happened to you?" She asked. "I was too busy dreams / dreaming about all the things I wanted, so I forgot / forgets about the pails," he replied. "Oh, my dear. How many time / times do I suggest, 'Don't count your chickens until / unless they hatch!'
