Present Simple → Affirmative

1. Read the next sentences:

A. Every morning, Bill has breakfast.

B. In the afternoon, he plays video games.

C. Later, he eats pizza for dinner.

Now, circle the correct option:

We use the Present Simple to talk about repeated actions / actions happening right now.

How do we form the Present Simple?

1) For I / you / we / they → we do not change the verb.

Example: I DRINK (to drink) lemonade every afternoon.

→ You _____ (to ride) your bike every day after school.

→ We _____ (to play) Roblox with our friends in the evening.

→ They _____ (brush) their teeth every night before bed.

2) For he / she / it → we add -S, -ES or -IES

Example: He DRINKS (to drink) lemonade every afternoon.

→ He _____ (to ride) his bike every day after school.

→ She _____ (to play) Roblox with our friends in the evening.

→ It _____ (brush) its teeth every night before bed.

Rules for adding -S to he / she / it

1) For most verbs, we just add -S:

I WALK to school every morning. → He WALKS to school every morning.

We RUN in the park on Monday. → She _____ in the park on Monday.

2) If the verb ends in -S, -Z, -O, -X, -CH or -SH, we add - ES.

I GO to my grandparents every Sunday. → He GOES to his grandparents every Sunday.

I always MISS my bus → She always _____ her bus.

I WASH my hands before lunch → She _____ her hands before lunch.

3) If the verb ends in CONSONANT + Y, we cut the Y and add -IES

I fly to Italy every summer. → He FLIES to his grandparents every Sunday.

I sometimes CRY when I'm sad → She sometimes _____ when she's sad

I CARRY my schoolbag every morning → He _____ his schoolbag every morning.

3) If the verb ends in VOWEL + Y, we just add -S

I play games on Sunday→ He PLAYS games on Sunday.

I buy food from the supermarket → He _____ food from the supermarket.
