

Extreme adjectives & Illness and injuries

1. Complete the sentences with one extreme adjective.

- a. The film wasn't just bad – it was
- b. The bull we saw wasn't just big – it was
- c. The other driver wasn't just angry – he was
- d. Walking through the tunnel in total darkness wasn't just scary – it was
- e. When we got off the plane in Seville, it wasn't just hot – it was
- f. Have you read this? It isn't just good – it's

2. Replace the underlined words with an extreme adjective.

- a. I wasn't wearing enough clothes for such a very cold wind.
- b. We met Beyoncé in a shop in London, and I was really excited.
- c. At the zoo, I saw a baby kangaroo, and it was very, very small.
- d. After six hours of shopping in the sales, we felt extremely tired.
- e. A truck crashed into a shop and made a really big hole in the wall.
- f. My parents were really angry when they saw the phone bill.

3. Complete the doctor's sentences.

- a. I was walking along the street when I put my foot in a hole and I fell down. You've got
- b. My brother was putting the big suitcase in the car when he had this pain. He's got
- c. I woke up during the night and I couldn't stop making this noise. You've got
- d. My nose is bad, I use tissues all the time, I can't speak clearly. You've got
- e. My legs are covered with little red marks! You've got
- f. I'm too hot, I don't feel well. I'm really thirsty. You've got

4. Match the problems to the suggestions.

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| a. A burn | - Why don't you take some of this medicine? |
| b. A cut | - You should go to the dentist. |
| c. A headache | - Don't eat or drink anything until you feel better. |
| d. A sore throat | - You should cover than with a bandage. |
| e. A stomachache | - Put lots of cold water on it. |
| f. Toothache | - How about some aspirin? |