

Extreme adjectives & Illness and injuries

1. Complete the sentences with one extreme adjective.

- The film wasn't just bad – it was
- The bull we saw wasn't just big – it was
- The other driver wasn't just angry – he was
- Walking through the tunnel in total darkness wasn't just scary – it was
- When we got off the plane in Seville, it wasn't just hot – it was
- Have you read this? It isn't just good – it's

2. Replace the underlined words with an extreme adjective.

- I wasn't wearing enough clothes for such a very cold wind.
- We met Beyoncé in a shop in London, and I was really excited.
- At the zoo, I saw a baby kangaroo, and it was very, very small.
- After six hours of shopping in the sales, we felt extremely tired.
- A truck crashed into a shop and made a really big hole in the wall.
- My parents were really angry when they saw the phone bill.

3. Complete the doctor's sentences.

- I was walking along the street when I put my foot in a hole and I fell down. You've got
- My brother was putting the big suitcase in the car when he had this pain. He's got
- I woke up during the night and I couldn't stop making this noise. You've got
- My nose is bad, I use tissues all the time, I can't speak clearly. You've got
- My legs are covered with little red marks! You've got
- I'm too hot, I don't feel well. I'm really thirsty. You've got

4. Match the problems to the suggestions.

a. A burn	- Why don't you take some of this medicine?
b. A cut	- You should go to the dentist.
c. A headache	- Don't eat or drink anything until you feel better.
d. A sore throat	- You should cover than with a bandage.
e. A stomachache	- Put lots of cold water on it.
f. Toothache	- How about some aspirin?