

Unidad Educativa CREAR Online - Samborondón Social Studies – First Partial

a. Choose the correct answer

Philip II was the son of King Amyntas III and his wife, Eurydice. HE was born in _____

After conquering Greece, Philip turned his attention to _____

In Ecuador, at the beginning of the , the heyday had passed and a long economic recession began.

The drop in international oil prices and the increase in domestic consumption reduced fiscal revenues. Exports of industrial products _____

Foreign debt and the pressures of the IMF and the _____ have weighed on Latin American economies for many years.

For several decades, _____ and our country were dominated by reformist proposals with an emphasis on state participation in the economy.

