

Characteristics of living Organisms

Instructions: State what characteristic of living organism is being described in the box on the left

Description

Characteristic

Chemical reaction that releases energy from food

Detecting changes in the environment.

A change in position to escape danger, find shelter or go towards sunlight

Making and offspring.

Increasing in size (getting bigger and bigger)

Getting rid of metabolic waste.

Intake of food for nutrients