

1. Match the word with definition

ancestor	the people of about the same age in a particular family
relative	the study of family history
gene	person related to you who lived a long time ago
genealogy	family member generation	transfer to look for	part of a cell passed from parents to children that determines how they look
find out	to be like somebody pass down	to try to find
look like	to discover or learn
take after	to have a similar appearance

2. Read the text (pp.5-6) and decide if the sentences are TRUE or FALSE

- 1 We look the way we do because of the genes in our DNA.
- 2 A DNA test can show where in the world our ancestors lived.
- 3 You can find out the number of relatives you have in a DNA test.

- 4 Genealogy is the history of our past and present family members.
- 5 Relatives who are alive could have information about ancestors.
- 6 A family tree shows how you are related to other people in your family.
- 7 A detective can help you to find information about your family.
- 8 It is possible to buy old newspapers at some libraries.
- 9 Public records tell you when people were born.
- 10 The text says that websites can help you find information about your ancestors.