5C Emotions and feelings

1 5.10 Look at the pictures. Match sentences 1–12 with people a–l. Listen and check.

1 Roberto feels very confident. He thinks he'll get the job. ____
2 Mr. Wallace doesn't like his job. He looks miserable. ____
3 Karen isn't worried about the interview. She's very calm today. ____
4 Peter hates interviews. He gets very nervous. ____

9 Vikram loves his job. He's very cheerful today. ____
10 Lucia forgot Jess's birthday, and is one hour late. She feels guilty. ____
11 Jess is celebrating her birthday by herself. She feels very lonely. ____
12 Mr. Lee's jealous. He doesn't like his wife talking to Vincent. ____

5 Kevin's very proud of his expensive new car. ____
6 Joe's envious of Kevin's car. He can't afford a new one. ____
7 Mr. Reeves has made a lot of money. He's delighted. ____
8 Sally's very upset because she had a car accident. ____

2 Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1 I studied really hard for this exam. I'm proud / confident / delighted I will pass.
2 Claire's really calm / guilty / upset because her boss invited everyone to a party except her.
3 Patrick borrowed his neighbor's coffeemaker and broke it. He feels really guilty / envious / miserable.
4 I was cheerful / delighted / confident when I got a pay raise and a promotion at work.
5 I moved to the city last year. I see lots of people, but I still feel envious / confident / lonely sometimes.
6 My son won a writing competition. I'm very proud / confident / delighted of him.
7 My neighbor finishes work at 2:00 p.m. every day. I sometimes feel really upset / envious / guilty of her!
8 When she listens to classical music, she always feels very cheerful / confident / calm.
9 Jo doesn't like public speaking, but she's going to give a presentation this afternoon. She's really lonely / nervous / upset.
10 I feel miserable / jealous / guilty. My train was late, I lost my phone, and now it's starting to rain!
11 Malika's son is only 3 years old. He gets guilty / lonely / jealous when she plays with her friends' children.
12 My boss was very cheerful / delighted / proud today. She was singing a song when she came into the office.

◀ Go back to page 144

LIVEWORKSHEETS