Quantifiers

Twins and triplets

Although twins aren't common, I'm sure (1) ____ people know someone who is a twin. Maybe there are (2) ____ twins at your school or in your family. Not (3) ____ twins look the same, of course. (4) ____ twins look similar, but only identical twins are the same. That's because (5) ____ twins shares exactly the same DNA.

My best friend Cara is a triplet. (6) ____ triplets around the world are non-identical, but Cara and her sisters – Holly and Nina – are identical. They've got the same hair, eyes, complexion, height and build. Because of this, they play tricks on their friends and family (7) ____ time. For example, when I think I'm talking with Cara on the phone, I'm actually speaking with one of her sisters. They have (8) ____ fun doing this, but I find it really annoying!

Their personalities, however, are totally different. (9) ____ Cara's sisters are creative, but she isn't. Holly is kind and polite, and says hello (10) ____ time she sees me. Nina, on the other hand, doesn't have (11) ____ patience with people and has (12) ____ time for anyone. She isn't very popular at all!
