

PAGES 301-311

1. What events had followed Virginia's life before she became a first woman in the Career Staff ?
2. Why did this period was marked with exceptionally hard times for Virginia?
3. What events happened in her personal life?
4. What has changed after the marriage?
5. Retiring from CIA did Virginia receive any recognition?
6. How can you describe Virginia's last years?

1. To put it simply
2. To clarify duties
3. To execute
4. To humiliate
5. To denounce
6. Rebuttal
7. Stand out
8. Reliable
9. Pitfalls
10. Obituary

a) a statement that says that something is not true
b) a report that gives the news of someone's death
c) to criticize something or someone strongly and publicly
d) In short
e) a likely mistake or problem in a situation
f) o make something clear or easier to understand by giving more details
g) deserving trust ; dependable

h) o make someone feel ashamed or lose respect for himself or herself
i) to do or perform something, especially in a planned way
j) to be much better than other similar things or people

Choose the words which may collocate with the following words.

To clarify

To execute

To denounce

Reliable