

LIFE SCIENCE STORIES

REPTILES

alligators      sun      lizards      scales      eggs      vertebrates      warm

Reptiles are a kind of animal. Reptiles usually live in _____ places, but some live in the water. Snakes, turtles, lizards, iguanas, and _____ are some common reptiles.

Reptiles are _____, so they have backbones. Reptiles have _____. Some also have shells. Reptiles are oviparous, they lay _____. Most reptiles are carnivores. A few kinds of _____ and turtles are herbivores!

Reptiles are cold-blooded. They like the _____ because it keeps them warm. If they get too cold, they could die.

Answer the questions! .....

1. _____ reptiles are carnivores.
A. NO      B. SOME      C. MOST      D. ALL

2. Which of these is a reptile?
A. SNAKE      B. SALAMANDER      C. BAT      D. SHARK

3. What kind of body covering do reptiles have?
A. FEATHERS      B. SLIME      C. SCALES      D. FUR

4. DEFINITION: meat eaters.
A. OMNIVORES      B. HERBIVOROUS      C. CARNIVOROUS      D. VEGETARIAN

5. Reptiles are warm-blooded.
A. TRUE      B. FALSE