

LISTENING

Identify positive and negative feelings

1 Look at the examples and match them to the tips in the box.

- a Yeah!! So pleased I came!
- b It was awful! So boring!
- c I feel very disappointed. It was too short.

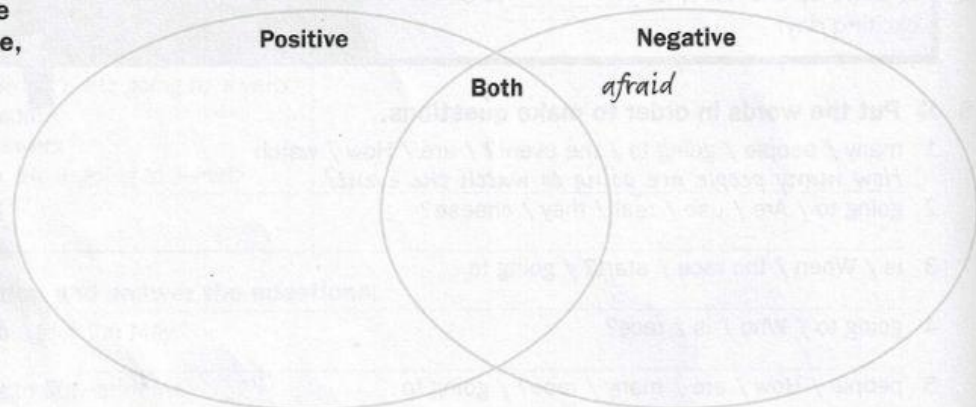

REMEMBER HOW TO ...

Identify positive and negative feelings

- Listen to what speakers say:
 - Do they say how they feel? (1) c
 - Do they use positive or negative adjectives? (2) _____
- Listen to how they speak. Do they sound happy or not? (3) _____

2 Decide which of these adjectives are positive, negative or both.

afraid angry
bored cool
embarrassed
excited funny
happy interested
nervous relaxed
sad surprised worried

3 ▶45 Listen to these people. Do they sound happy or unhappy? Choose the correct answer.

- 1 happy / unhappy 2 happy / unhappy

4 ▶46 Listen to the conversations and answer the questions. Choose a, b or c.

Michelle

John

Harry

Tamera

- 1 What did John enjoy about the party?
 - a the music b the food c the people
- 2 What is Michelle going to do at the weekend?
 - a go to a party b go on holiday c work on a project
- 3 What did Tamera enjoy about the New Year? (You can choose more than one answer.)
 - a the music b the food c the fireworks
- 4 What is Harry going to do at the weekend?
 - a go to a party b go on holiday c work on a project

5 ▶46 Listen again and tick (✓) the correct answer. Does the speaker sound positive or negative?

Conversation 1

Michelle: Positive ☐ Negative ☐

Conversation 2

Harry: Positive ☐ Negative ☐

6 ▶46 Listen again and write down the positive and negative words each person uses.

Feelings

1 Look at the opinions about emoticons. Tick (✓) the ones you agree with and underline the feelings.

1 I can never have too many emoticons. They make me excited. ☐

2 I think people use too many emoticons. It makes me angry! ☐

3 I'm worried I use too many emoticons. ☐

4 Some people should be embarrassed by how many emoticons they use. ☐

2 Complete the text messages with the words in the box. Use the emoticons to help you.

afraid angry ~~bored~~ embarrassed
excited interested nervous
relaxed surprised worried

1 I'm so 😞
bored.
There's nothing to do here.

2 Don't be 😞. You'll be fine. You're clever and always get good grades.

3 I'm really 😞 with him. He never does the things I want him to do!

4 Are you 😞 about the test tomorrow? Yes, because it's so important.

5 Emma looks really 😞. She fell over in front of the whole class.

6 Thanks everyone! I was so 😞 by the party. I didn't know you were organising it.

7 I'm so 😞!
I've got tickets for One Direction!

8 So are you 😞? If not I can give the ticket to someone else.

9 Don't be 😞. It's just an old vampire film.

10 I'm feeling so 😞 after my holiday – no stress at all.

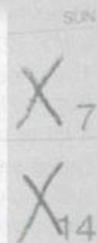

WORDS & BEYOND

3 Complete the text with the words in the box.

bonfire calendar dress code feeling
festival positive RSVP

Countdown!

I love the (1) feeling at this time of year. There are so many great celebrations and (2) _____s on the (3) _____ – every week there's something happening. Everyone is so (4) _____ at the moment. Right, you all have your invites to my Guy Fawkes party. Fireworks and (5) _____ provided – just bring some food! Please (6) _____ soon so I know how many drinks to buy. (7) _____ – something warm ☺.

4 Complete the conversation with the words in the box.

congratulations giant Good luck! mistake
plans predict solution tomorrow

Before the party:

Archie: How are your (1) plans for (2) _____ going?

Jane: I bought some (3) _____ fireworks – they're so big.

Archie: Sounds good! Why do you look worried?

Jane: I'm worried about how many people will come.

Archie: How many people replied?

Jane: Around 50 people.

Archie: Wow! (4) _____ Your house isn't that big.

Jane: Don't say that. I'm really worried it's going to rain. Any ideas for a (5) _____ if it rains?

Archie: My parents have a gazebo*. I'll bring it tomorrow.

Jane: Thanks. I think it was a (6) _____ inviting so many people.

Archie: Don't worry, it'll be fine. I (7) _____ you'll only get 30 or 40 people.

Jane: I hope so.

At the party:

Archie: Well, (8) _____ on organising such a big event.

Glossary

*gazebo – like a tent without sides/walls