

VOCABULARY TEST

Name: Surname:

A. Complete the sentences with the right word from the box below.

evoke – summon – refrain – urge – faction – irregularity – interpretation appraisal – inference – principle – perspective – consensus – distinct – opulent conventional – prolific – obscure – ample – chronic - underway

1. The club were found guilty of financial
2. Anle is a writer of more than 200 romances.
3. The photographs strong memories of our holidays in France.
4. His father's death gave him a whole new on life.
5. Reflexology is based on the that specific areas on the feet correspond to different parts of the body.
6. The 13th annual Blues Festival gets today.
7. Morishita leads an lifestyle. She buys whatever she wants no matter how much it may cost.
8. I got a note from Moira me to get in touch.
9. Progress in any field requires an honest of your own work.
10. There is evidence that climate patterns are changing.
11. The committee found that it was unable to reach a
12. Please from smoking in this area.
13. Robert the waiter for the bill.
14. Bake for 20 minutes in a oven; 8 in a microwave.
15. The learning needs of the two groups are quite from each other.
16. One possible is that they want you to resign.
17. Steps are now being taken to get both warring around the negotiating table.
18. He suffers from asthma.
19. The lines were written by an English poet named Mordaunt.
20. Comparing many countries is the best method for drawing that have more global applicability.

