Read «A job for experts", page 30 – 32 in textbook and answer the questions from the text.

Where was Martin and Max going on Monday morning?

To the shop | To school | To their grandma.

Who was standing outside their classroom?

Their teacher | A policeman | A policewoman

Why were the police there?

The teacher was arrested | There had been a break-in | The police was looking for a cat.

How many classrooms did the burglar break in to?

One classroom | All the classrooms at school | Two classrooms

How did Martin and Max feel about the break-in?

They were excited | They felt scared | They were angry

Who lives near the school?

Martin | Max | The teacher

Was anything stolen?

A world globe | A world globe and some books | A world globe and Martins tablet

Look at the picture at page 31 and then at the picture at page 32. Who do you think is the burglar?

The woman with the dog | The man with a broom | The young man to the left

What made you solve the mystery?

The dog must have made the mess in the classroom | The man with the broom must have used it to make a mess | The young man has lost his shoe when he did the break-in

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS