

Name: _____

Complete the following.

1. Money is the _____ of exchange, measure and store _____, and means of _____ deferred _____.
2. The functions of money can be classified into two categories _____ functions and _____ functions.
3. The primary functions of money are _____ and _____.
4. The secondary functions of money are _____, _____ and _____.
5. Storing of earned wealth and making money easily stored for future use is _____.
6. Money used to make payments for all transactions of goods and services is _____.
7. A standard for making future payments is _____.
8. Money facilitating the buying and selling of goods not only in a country but around the world is _____.