

(B1) Unit 2 LISTENING (Part 2) MULTIPLE CHOICE

3

03 Listen to the interview and choose the correct answers.

- 1 Georgia first become interested in Roman houses when
 - A she became an archeologist.
 - B she read about them in books.
 - C she saw some in an ancient city.
- 2 Why does she think houses are important?
 - A They provide information about people.
 - B Some are impressive to look at.
 - C Many still exist after such a long time.
- 3 How were Roman houses different from ours?
 - A They were surprisingly varied.
 - B The design inside was unlike ours.
 - C There were more rooms.
- 4 The apartments that the poor people lived in
 - A had many families in each one.
 - B were only used for sleeping.
 - C were close to public toilets.
- 5 What does Georgia think archeologists will discover when they study us in the future?
 - A That society doesn't really change.
 - B That it is possible for lives to improve.
 - C That our time in history was different.

