

(B1) Unit 2 LISTENING (Part 2) MULTIPLE CHOICE

3

03 Listen to the interview and choose the correct answers.

- 1 Georgia first become interested in Roman houses when
  - A she became an archeologist.
  - B she read about them in books.
  - C she saw some in an ancient city.
- 2 Why does she think houses are important?
  - A They provide information about people.
  - B Some are impressive to look at.
  - C Many still exist after such a long time.
- 3 How were Roman houses different from ours?
  - A They were surprisingly varied.
  - B The design inside was unlike ours.
  - C There were more rooms.
- 4 The apartments that the poor people lived in
  - A had many families in each one.
  - B were only used for sleeping.
  - C were close to public toilets.
- 5 What does Georgia think archeologists will discover when they study us in the future?
  - A That society doesn't really change.
  - B That it is possible for lives to improve.
  - C That our time in history was different.

