

Vocabulary: Values

Adverb + adjective combination

1 Complete sentences 1-11 with the words in the box.

Integrity - pioneering - responsibility - unity - excellence - merit - competence - diversity - equality - dignity - respect - tolerance - mutual cooperation

- _____ in the workforce means we have a wide range of skills and experience to draw upon.
- Tim Berners-Lee was the _____ force in the development of the Internet.
- It is our _____ to make sure our production process has minimal impact on the environment.
- In spite of their differences, the board displayed public _____ at their last press conference.
- All staff promotions are based on _____ -it's about an individual's _____ rather than length of service.
- _____ between the two countries has increased trade in recent years.
- Our company has very strong moral principles - _____ is key.
- We have strict regulations against discrimination in order to ensure _____ for all our employees.
- Employees should show _____ and understanding towards colleagues with different points of view.
- Our ultimate goal is to achieve _____. We do our job the best we can possibly do it.
- Our work environment promotes mutual _____ so that all employees can maintain their _____ at work.

2 Choose the adverb in italics that can't be used in each sentence.

- A rise in interest rates would be comparatively/potentially/significantly disastrous.
- The negative figures for the last quarter are potentially/profoundly / surprisingly worrying.
- Fortunately demand has remained comparatively/ irretrievably/relatively stable.
- The growth in demand for new hybrid cars has been potentially/relatively/unexpectedly rapid.
- Since the negative publicity over the recent share issue, media reports have become appreciably/noticeably/relatively more hostile.
- Even if the allegations aren't true, their effect is comparatively / irretrievably/potentially damaging for the company.
- Disposable income across the population as a whole is irretrievably /noticeably/significantly different from even a year ago.
- It's a fact that we are now finding it potentially/increasingly/relatively difficult to find skilled workers prepared to work for these wages.