

COMPARATIVES OR SUPERLATIVES

CHOOSE BETWEEN THE COMPARATIVE OR SUPERLATIVE FORM OF THE ADJECTIVES.

1. Chinese is [the most spoken / more spoken than] language in the world.
2. My brother is [lazier than / the laziest] me!
3. It is usually [warmer / the warmest] in spring than in winter.
4. Football is [the most popular / more popular than] golf in our country.
6. Learning French is [the most difficult / more difficult than] learning English.
7. Eating fruit and vegetables is [healthier than / the healthiest] eating junk food.
9. The cheetah is [the fastest / faster than] animal in the world.
10. My neighbours are [nicer than / most nicest] the people living opposite.
11. Lucas is [taller than / the tallest] boy in the class.
12. I am sure the Nile is [the longest / longer than] river in the world. You can check!
13. Diamonds are [the most expensive / more expensive than] precious stones in the world.
14. For sure, cats are [more intelligent than / most intelligent] dogs!
15. I think U2 and Cold Play are two of [the best / better than] bands in the world!
16. London is [bigger than / the biggest] Paris.
17. London is [bigger than / the biggest] city in England.
18. Guada is [more talkative than / the most talkative] than Lucas!
19. Joaquin is [the most kindest / the kindest] boy I know.
20. It is [more important / the most important] to save endangered species than to develop tourist zones!

