

Reading Two: Vocabulary Practice

Choose the correct words to complete the paragraphs.

- 1 MC Escher was a very creative artist. His pictures look ordinary at first. But when you look closer, you can see that they are often not logical. For example, one famous picture has a stairway that only goes in a circle. It looks like it just goes up, but that is not possible! His drawings are so original. I have never seen any others like them. I am very about how he made these interesting drawings, so I just bought a book about him.

- 2 Dr. Clarion is a really interesting professor. He is a scientist and an artist. He thinks that science and art is really interesting. For example, last year he did a project about pollution in a local river. He gathered lots of facts about the river. And when he was done with the scientific , he painted several about the river. He took his paintings to a big scientific meeting and talked about them there. He loves .
