Listening

Listen to the interview and choose the correct answer, A, B or C.

1. What does Lily say is a bit unusual about her family?

A She doesn't have many brothers and sisters.

B Her parents are of different nationalities.

C She and her sister were born in England.

2. How does Lily describe her relationship with her parents?

A She finds her mother too strict.

B There are never any problems.

C They are able to discuss things together.

3. How did her sister's fame affect Lily?

A She lost her self-confidence for a while.

B She thought her parents paid her less attention.

C She wanted to become a singer, too.

4. What does Lily like about the summer camp?

A It is much better than staying at home.

B It has helped her to develop leadership skills.

C It has given her a new group of friends.

5. What advice does Lily give to teenagers generally?

A Criticism can sometimes be useful.

B Don't listen to other people's destructive criticism.

C To be strong, you have to go through difficult times.