

Nations and Nationalities

The adjective for a nationality is the same as the language.

They are from England. They are _____.

She is from _____. She is German.

He is Canadian. He is from _____.

We are Irish. We are from _____.

I'm from _____. I am Belgian.

You're from _____. You're French.

She is from _____. She is American.

Citizens of Scotland are called _____.

Citizens of _____ are called Dutch.

People in Italy speak _____.

People in _____ speak Spanish.

People who live in India are called _____.

People who live in _____ are called Australian.

_____ live in Austria, but they speak German.

New Zealanders live in New Zealand, but they speak _____.

The Portuguese speak Portuguese in _____.

Citizens of China are called _____.

Citizens of _____ are called Japanese.

People who live in _____ speak Greek.

People who live in Sweden speak _____.