

Agree or disagree with the following statements. Put T-true statement or F-false statement according to the information in the video.

- When Charles Darwin was a college student he spent most of the time in libraries.
- Lazy people always try to make life easier.
- Minds of lazy people are not filled with excessive thoughts and responsibilities.
- The most important thing for lazy people is to know when to start working.
- Priorities of others are not essential for lazy people.
- Lazy people never use technologies to get the task done twice as fast.