The image shows the front page of The Guardian newspaper. At the top left, there is a small article about 'Ashes Special' with a photo of a bottle. The main masthead 'theguardian' is in a large blue banner. Below it is the main headline 'Doubts over value of £3bn Sure Start' with a sub-headline 'Flagship government scheme to help deprived youngsters may be failing'. To the right of the headline is a large photo of hands holding a bottle. Below the photo is the caption 'After 16 years, to England, the Ashes' and the byline 'Richard Williams'. The main story continues in several columns below the photo.

The worksheet is titled 'My mistake' and is part of a 'LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT COMMUNICATION & LANGUAGE' section. It features a large photo of a woman and a young child sitting at a table, looking at something together. The text of the article is partially obscured by several red rectangular boxes, which are intended for students to write the words from the text into. The text discusses a woman's experience with her child's language development and her realization of a mistake she made.
