

Double comparatives 2

Re-write the following sentences using double comparatives

I feel better and better when the weather is warm

The warmer the weather, the better I feel

1. I like it more when things are dangerous.
2. As Mark is getting old, he looks more and more like his grandfather.
3. I didn't like him at first, but I do now that I know him better.
4. She had to wait for a long time and she got very impatient.
5. If a chicken is old, it's rather tough.
6. When a student is careful, he makes very few mistakes.
7. A diamond is very expensive if it's perfect.
8. When the plums are ripen, they are very sweet.
9. If you drink a lot of coffee, you'll get more and more nervous.
10. When people eat very quickly, there is a high chance of indigestion.

11. Houses close to the centre are very expensive.
12. When people are young, they learn very quickly.