Read the sentences about the climate below. Then, match the word or phrase in bold to the correct definition.

1. Can I open the window? It's boiling in here.
2. It was a beautiful day with a blue sky and a gentle breeze.
3. The downpour lasted for several hours, with raindrops falling as if they would never stop.
4. The weather forecast had predicted light showers and, as soon as I got outside, it began to drizzle.
5. When I was walking along the street, a car run through a huge puddle in the road and splashed it on me. I was soaked from head to toe.
6. It's chilly in the house, even when it's sunny outside.
7. Summers in Tokyo are hot and humid.
8. Annual precipitation ranges from 500 to 2,200 mm.
9. This year's monsoon rains are expected to flood several villages.
10. It's bitterly cold today even it's not winter yet.

_____ a. rain lightly (v)/ a fine, gentle, misty rain (n)

_____ b. (of the air or climate) warm and slightly wet (a)

_____ c. very cold (a)

_____ d. a light wind (n)

_____ e. too cold to be comfortable (a) _____ f. rain, snow, etc. that falls; the amount of this that falls (n)

_____ g. a heavy fall of rain that often starts suddenly (n)

_____ h. very hot (a)

_____ i. a period of heavy rain in summer in South Asia; the rain that falls during this period (n)

_____ j. to become completely wet (a)

LIVEWORKSHEETS