

In the following questions each sentence has four underlined words or phrases in italics. The four underlined parts of the sentence are marked (A),(B),(C), and (D). Identify the one underlined word or phrase that must be changed in order for the sentence to be correct.

*

1. The players were not playing (A) well (B) during the game, because (C) the forwards of the opposite team could score three goals easily. (D)
2. The table was lain (A) for six (B) and the guests were invited to take (C) their places at the table. (D)
3. Wilson Steward loved to collect (A) the things to be used (B) about the house (C) and he couldn't pass an useful thing (D) when he saw it.
4. The team of engineers (A) was expected (B) to arrive to (C) the place of the accident in a few hours. (D)
5. The prices in the shop (A) were not so low that (B) the ones (C) in the supermarket next to the post-office we usually (D) went to.
6. The plan was for everybody (A) to start at noon, (B) but all of a sudden (C) one problem emerged and someone was to stay at work to take care about (D) it.
7. If you will come (A) to me tomorrow, I'll show you my new collection of coins that (B) I bought (C) only a week ago. (D)
8. When have you bought (A) that book? I have been looking (B) for it for several months but couldn't find (C) it anywhere (D) in the town.
9. Sophie is so nice. (A) She is not only (B) pretty but also (C) clever and optimistic. I'd like to be her friend but she hardly never (D) speaks to me.
10. Our neighbour got into (A) an accident yesterday. – Oh, what a terrible news! (B) I hope he is all right. – Well, he broke an arm (C) and will have to be (D) at hospital for a few days.

